Now There is Joy Again.

Wake, happy land! to the beautiful dawn,
 Which breaks on the sight of thy sorrow and
 Darker, indeed, was the night before morning,
 Heavy the grief that had laid thee thus low.
 Now there is joy again!
 Lift the head, drooping then!
 Wake to the brightness which shall be thine!
 Sunshine now lights the day,
 Clouds shall flee fast away—
 Gaily shall thou no longer repine.
 O if the darkness which threatened to cover
 thee
 Had been permitted to close in despair—
 O if the God who has ever watched over thee
 Had not now answered thy suppliant prayer—
 Bitter thy grief had been,
 Seldom such a sorrow seen—
 Hearts ever light had been shrouded in gloom.
 Then they would wait thy word
 And Heaven and Earth had stirred,
 While thy tears fell o'er thy President's tomb.
 Grief, not yet is thy life's mission ended;
 Still shalt thou live this great people to lead;
 Still this great Nation 'neath thee shall be blest—
 Wended for honor and honorable deed;
 For the foul murderer's hand,
 Thy life to take that planned,
 Yet shalt be foiled in its dreadful endeavor.
 Firm is the people's love,
 Guided by God above,
 Blessings and happiness thine be forever!
 And Thou, Almighty God, God of the Nation,
 Who in this midnight hour still hast been near;
 Granting once more, in Thy mercy, salvation
 From the affliction which caused us to fear—
 List, for thy old children would,
 Render Thee thanks for Thy fatherly care;
 While with full hearts we raise
 Songs of unceasing praise.
 Still be our God and King—this is our prayer.

Territorial Jottings.

It is reported that Father Andres, the parish priest of Las Cruces, is to be removed.
 Telephone communication has been established between Santa Fe and Bonanza City, in the Cerrillos district.
 Ellis canyon, in the Magdalena mountains near Socorro, is said to have some very promising mining claims that are opening up well.
 The trial of Billy Wilson, one of Billy "the Kid's" old chums, who is held for counterfeiting, will come off in the U. S. Court in Santa Fe at the next term.
 It is said that more articles of incorporation of companies that propose to do business in the Territory have been filed within the past ten days than during any previous month.
 "Pistol Johnnie" is reported to have "held up" the whole of Espanola, the terminus of the D. & R. G. R. Y., near Santa Fe. He was marshal of a little procession of thirty men, some of whom were unwilling recruits, that marched through town ordering all saloons to "set 'em up" to his band.
 Albuquerque Journal: Papers have been served on the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad Company to-day, preparatory to the commencement of a suit against them by the Pacific Railroad Company of Missouri for the enforcement of a lease. The sum involved is $11,500,000. W. B. Nassau is attorney for plaintiff, and W. C. Hazledine for defendant.
 Three car loads of furniture for the new Palace Hotel are expected to arrive in a few days, and the work of furnishing the rooms in the north wing of the building will be commenced as soon as it gets here. That portion of the building will be ready for occupancy by the fifteenth of August, without fail.—Santa Fe New Mexican.
 Rio Arriba County has been very quiet for a time, but the temptation of the people to mete out summary justice to the author of a sickening murder was too great to be resisted. J. T. Jennings, who murdered a man by the name of Lewis, that he might the more easily pay his lustful attentions to Lewis' wife, was taken from Farmington to Tierra Amarilla, and on the first night after his lodgment in jail there was lynched.
 Articles of incorporation of nine different mining companies doing business in the Black Range have been filed in the office of the Secretary of the Territory. Col. M. G. Gillette, the old Comstocker, is agent of all the companies. The following are the incorporators of the Ivanhoe company, several of whom are interested in all the companies: H. B. Denman, Benj. F. Grafton, Robt. G. Ingersoll, Story B. Ladd, Daniel W. Middleton, Halbert E. Paine, P. B. Plumb. The directors are H. B. Denman, M. B. Gillette, Benj. F. Grafton, Frank W. Hess, Robt. G. Ingersoll, Story B. Ladd, Daniel W. Middleton, Halbert E. Paine and P. B. Plumb.
 The San Pedro Coal and Coke Company has filed articles of incorporation. The company will operate in this Territory, and has a capital stock of $100,000. The incorporators are Mr. Wm. B. Strong, W. W. Griffin, Thos. J. Peter, Henry L. Waldo, and Desiderio Montoya, who will act as a board of directors for the next three months. President Strong, of the A. T. & S. F. R. R., is President of the company; E. Wilder, Treasurer of the railroad company, Secretary and Treasurer; and W. W. Griffin, Assistant Secretary and Treasurer. Coal fields two miles square have been purchased near Socorro, and will be the field for operations at present.
 Within the past two weeks one of the most important discoveries that has been made in this locality has been brought to light. The principal discoverer is N. Marsh, a well known prospector. He is connected with several other parties who have located about ten leads, all of which, especially the Comet, show wonderful wealth. The Comet, the principal mine, is within itself a bonanza of wealth. The lode between walls is eight feet, and shows upwards of 200 ounces in silver, and 54 per cent. of copper, much of which is native. Without a doubt these mines will become among the most noted in the Territory, all that is wanted is labor and capital to develop them.—Socorro Sun.

An Arizona Version of the Conkling Affair.

A pensive coyote, wandering over the hills in a hungry frame of mind, espied a horned toad, which he immediately proceeded to devour. Being no longer distracted with the cravings of an empty stomach, he had due time for reflection, which with his happy condition of body led him to believe he was cut above the ordinary species of canine to which he belonged. While laboring under this delusion he met some rugged and stern burros whom he immediately accosted thus: "I am as fat as you are. I can run much faster, and while you can lay over me on a chorus, I can take the wind out of you on a solo, and I think you would do well to take me into your family." "All right," said the burros, "do as we do and you shall have a leg of a pair of old overalls we found down in the gulch for supper." Not desiring to partake of that unpalatable repast, he sped over the country to inform his friends that he was a burro, and that they need not place any plate for him at the family table, and when he drew nigh he kicked and cavorted around among the sagebrush to convince them of his identity, until they told him he was crazy, and to go and soak his head. In disgust he returned to the burros, who, angered at his lack of burrorial courtesy ignominiously kicked him out. Pained and bruised he returned to the coyotes and said, "you must take me back, and sustain me as one of the party, or I will be ruined." "No," said they, "you have made an ass of yourself, and we don't want you." And to this day he wanders among the hills, sad and dejected, "wrapped in the solitude of his own originality."

MORAL:

Never resign until you are sure of getting back.—Arizona Nugget.

Acting Governor W. G. Rich has received communications from settlers along the Navajo river stating that they have been ordered by the Secretary of the Interior to vacate the lands in favor of Jicarilla Apaches. The settlers complain that the order is unjust to them, inasmuch as they have established themselves upon the lands, have planted crops, which they cannot afford to lose, and have no money with which to remove their families and effects. It appears, however, that the settlers are merely ordered off the reservation and had no right to go on it in the first place. Acting Governor Rich has the complaints under consideration, and will forward them to the Secretary of the Interior probably with the request that the order be somewhat modified.—New Mexican.
